The trustees present their annual report and financial statements of Cramond Kirk for the year ended 31 December 2019. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out on pages 14 and 15 of the accounts and comply with the General Assembly Regulations for Congregational Finance, the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) and Accounting and Reporting by Charities : Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland published on 16 July 2014.

Objectives and Activities

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in polity. It exists to glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. As a national Church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish of Scotland through a territorial ministry. It co-operates with other Churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond.

Cramond Kirk has two morning services of worship each Sunday (8.45am and 10.00am) and three evening services per year (Christmas Eve, Good Friday, Christian Aid Songs of Praise.) A church choir leads the praise at the 10.00am morning service while the Sunday Club provides Christian education for children and young people. A Saturday morning breakfast club meets during the winter months and provides an opportunity for Christian education for the members of the congregation and community. On three occasions during the year, Easter, Harvest and Christmas, housebound and frail elderly members of the congregation are invited to the Kirk Hall for a service and afternoon tea while the minister leads worship services in local nursing and care homes. Bible study and discussion groups are held to encourage members of the congregation to explore issues of Christian faith. The congregation also supports uniformed organisations for the children and young people of the community (Scouts and Guides) and a twice weekly lunch and activity club (Almond Mains Initiative) for older people and a monthly café for people with a diagnosis of dementia and their carers. The Kirk Halls are also extensively used by community groups and organisations. The congregation is active in supporting the work of Christian Aid with door to door collections during Christian Aid week as well as a Christian Aid fair and a quiz night. Other emergency appeals for Christian Aid are held as requested during the year. Two further fundraising events are held each year (Jumble Sale and Christmas Fair) with the proceeds given to support other charitable bodies (e.g. Fresh Start, Cramond Scouts and Almond Mains Initiative).

Achievements and Performance

Over the years Cramond Kirk has provided an excellent training ground for young men and women entering the ministry of the Church of Scotland. In April 2019 we welcomed the first Nigerian minister to the congregation.

The Reverend Stanley Okeke was ordained in the Presbyterian Church in Nigeria and having completed a Masters degree at the University of Edinburgh in 2015 Stanley applied to transfer into the Church of Scotland. Our minister, Dr Barr, knew Stanley through the World Mission Council and when Stanley's application was accepted, it was agreed Stanley should spend his 12 month familiarisation period at Cramond Kirk learning about the life, worship and culture of the Church of Scotland. Stanley's wife and children joined him in mid-July and the family is staying in one of the Church of Scotland's furlough houses. Stanley is bringing an international perspective to the life and work of the congregation and his presence is a living reminder that our congregation is one small part of the worldwide Christian church.

As well as welcoming Stanley, in June 2019 the congregation welcomed Iain Majcher to the ministry team. Having completed all his academic work, Iain is spending 15 months at Cramond Kirk as the final part of his practical training and, like Stanley, Iain has been fully involved in the life of the congregation, preaching and leading worship as well as visiting people at home and in hospital. Iain is a former pupil at Cargilfield School where Dr Barr was his school chaplain and Iain has been leading assemblies with the Cargilfield Pre-Prep children each Thursday morning,

The final change to the ministry team came at the end of 2019 with the retirement of the Reverend Tom Cuthell as our Associate Minister. Tom had served as locum during Dr Barr's absence in 2016/17 when he was Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland. Following Colin Douglas' retirement as associate minister, December 2017, Tom accepted an invitation to return to the ministry team at Cramond Kirk. Tom has been actively involved in leading worship as well as visiting and providing pastoral care to many of the elderly and housebound members of the congregation and community and he has made a wonderful contribution to the life of the congregation.

In May 2019 Dr Sandra Watson stepped down as Session Clerk at Cramond Kirk. Speaking at May's Session meeting Dr Barr spoke of the diligence, commitment, grace and elegance with which Sandra had fulfilled her duties and offered her Session's warmest thanks and best wishes. Having recently retired from her dental practice, Edith Butler was nominated by Session to serve as our new Session Clerk. Edith was ordained as an elder in 1998 and over the years she has been much involved with Sunday Club and youth activities. Cramond Kirk is very fortunate to have people of Sandra and Edith's calibre willing to take on the role of Session Clerk.

One of the outcomes of the congregation's 2018 stewardship project, Cramond Cares, was the appointment of Diane Williams as a pastoral assistant with particular responsibility for elderly care. With the Cramond community having more older people than any other area of Edinburgh, with two new care homes opened in the parish, and with all evidence suggesting loneliness and isolation is a particular concern for older people, Diane has been responsible for creating an Information Hub of help, advice and resources.

Rather than setting herself up in an office, Diane began working from a table in the Gathering Space in the Kirk Halls. As well as people coming to find out about the information Diane has collated of the many resources available for older people from stair lifts to blue badges to hairdressing to bathroom grab rails, people using the hall and attending one of the many groups and activities, including mothers with their babies, would stop for a chat.

Being a Mum and Gran herself, Diane realised that sometimes what a stressed Mum needed was a cup of tea and a chance to sit down for five minutes – and in no time a pop-up café emerged. Every Thursday a group of volunteers set tables in the Gathering Space with tea, coffee, biscuits and home baking available and dozens of people of all ages are now enjoying the opportunity to sit for a few minutes with a cup of tea or coffee and the opportunity to chat to someone.

Another outcome of Cramond Cares was the decision to renovate the kitchen and toilets in the Kirk Hall as well as replace the windows to provide better insulation. The hall was last refurbished and extended in AD 2000 and it has been so well used the time has come to upgrade its facilities. Throughout the year a variety of meetings have been held with hall users to ascertain exactly what is required and it is hoped final plans and costs will be presented to the Kirk Session in February 2020 for their approval.

At May's annual meeting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, a radical action plan was approved which has the potential to change the character of the church at a local, regional and national level. The Very Reverend John Chalmers was appointed as chair of the new group of Church of Scotland trustees and following November's communion services, John led a seminar for the Session and congregation giving details of what is proposed for the central structures and administration of the church as well as the impact this could have on local congregations. The Kirk Session will follow up some of the proposals at its annual seminar in March 2020.

With the retirement of a number of elders on grounds of age or incapacity, the Session agreed to appoint new members of Session. 14 people were approached to consider the eldership and after training meetings led by the Minister and Session Clerk, five people have accepted the invitation and will be ordained at morning worship on 19 January 2020. Mindful of their role as trustees of the charity that is Cramond Kirk, in October the Kirk Session agreed that retired elders would no longer be considered to be trustees and while their names would remain in the Session handbook, they would no longer appear on the annual OSCR return.

After some initial teething problems, the colour printed version of Grapevine settled into its new format and continues to be distributed throughout the parish and beyond on four occasions each year. The Communications team continues to make good use of the Kirk website and social media sites to promote the activities of the congregation.

Children and young people continue to play an active part in the life and worship of the congregation and in October 2019 a special service was held to mark the 75th anniversary of Cramond Scouts. Having been started in 1944 by the Reverend Leonard Small with 12 youngsters, over 200 are actively involved in the various branches of Cramond Scouts with many thousands having been involved with the group over those 75 years.

With John Naylor, one of Cramond Kirk's elders, having been the chair of YMCA Scotland, another anniversary service was held at the church in November to celebrate the YMCA's 150th anniversary.

We continue to make regular donations of £225 three times a year to the Turi Children's Project in Kenya. The project supports children in the village of Turi by providing meals and clothing for those most in need, as well as financial assistance for some who require special schooling. The project has expanded to include teaching a wide range of life skills from rearing chickens, hairdressing and knitting to assistance with school work and access to computers connected to the internet.

Cramond Kirk continues to enjoy a good relationship with its neighbouring congregations. Graham Madeley continues to serve as the Acting Session Clerk at the Old Kirk and Muirhouse where our assistant ministers Stanley Okeke and Iain Majcher, have preached and led worship on a number of occasions. Once again at the start of the school Christmas holiday we held a joint Christmas Club for primary school children from Cramond, Muirhouse and Drylaw with crafts, dance, games, activities and worship celebrating the birth of Jesus. The Christmas club was attended by some 75 youngsters and was led by members of all three congregations. It was also supported by a grant (£250) from the Presbytery of Edinburgh's Mission Committee.

As reported in the Church of Scotland's annual statistical return there were 14 infant and 1 adult baptism, 4 weddings and 53 funeral services. 3 people were added to the communion roll by profession of faith and 7 by certificate while 28 people were removed from the roll by death, 3 by certificate and 1 by revision giving a total communicant membership of 932.

Financial Review

In compliance with the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended), the accounts are prepared on a fully accrued basis.

Total funds at 31 December 2019 were £836,765, an increase of £260,919 during the year. The increase was due principally to legacies totalling £199,541 received during the year, but accrued unrealised investment gains of some £62,000 also made a major contribution. Income from the use of premises also increased (up £9,049) but on the other hand there was a decrease of £8,614 in the sum drawn down from the funds held by the Church of Scotland General Trustees on behalf of the Kirk, fabric repairs and maintenance costs recovered being less in 2019 than in the preceding year. Income from congregational giving and donations, with related tax recovery, was also down to some extent.

Unrestricted Funds increased by £254,942 to £708,043 with the General Fund growing from £215,123 to £279,147, mainly from unrealised investment gains. Expenditure rose by £8,433 from £384,406 to £392,839 due principally to an increase of £6,270 in Ministries & Mission contribution but also arising from higher salary and wage costs and from higher heat and light costs as well as inflation-related increases in other expenses.

Unrestricted Designated Funds were £428,896, an increase of £190,918, principally owing to an increase of £190,828 in the Legacy Fund (legacies of £199,541 received being offset by a transfer of £8,713 to the General Fund to cover music costs) but also an increase in the Fabric Fund (up £4,116 including a transfer of £4,063 from the General Fund), offset by decreases in the Burials Fund (down £3,896 in respect of expenses incurred in planning expenses incurred towards the creation of a new Memorial Garden) and in the Outreach Fund (down £250).

No expenditure was attributed during the year to the Fabric Fund as all fabric costs were met, by prior agreement with the General Trustees and Edinburgh Presbytery, from funds held by them on behalf of Cramond Kirk resulting from the letting of Cramond House.

The Endowment Fund increased by £504 to £11,675, reflecting the increase in the value of the investment held within that Fund.

Restricted Funds rose by £5,473 to £117,047 largely attributable to increased investment values although there was expenditure from the Gillies Fund by way of grants to other charitable bodies and in meeting the costs of the Pastoral Care Assistant.

The Balance Sheet shows Cash and Bank balances of £258,158 and investments valued at £556,458 at 31 December 2019, a total of £814,616, an increase of £259,776 in the year. Debtors, comprising Gift Aid tax recoveries, General Trustees claims for fabric-related expenditure incurred and Hall rentals due, amounted to £37,369, a decrease on 2018 of £319. Creditors, being provisions for certain accruals, at £15,220 were £1,462 less than in 2018.

Cash and investments held by the Church of Scotland General Trustees, on behalf of Cramond Kirk, at 31 December 2019 were £255,361. This was after rental, interest and dividend income and Cramond Kirk fabric, insurance, heat & light and salary costs agreed by the General Trustees as recoverable. Appendix I on page 24 provides further details.

Investment Policy and Performance

The trustees' investment policy is aimed at maintaining the value of the investments as a whole in the longer term but with a reasonable level of continuing income.

In the course of 2019 £100,000 from legacies received became available for investment in Unrestricted Funds. After considering recommendations from the Finance Committee's Investment Group, the trustees invested the funds as to £20,000 in the COIF Charities Investment Fund and £10,000 in each of the Church of Scotland Investors Trust Growth Fund and the M & G Charifund, with the balance being retained with the intention of further investment in these holdings at three-monthly intervals. However, with an additional £50,000 now available from legacies, the Investment Group are to review the position in January 2020 before making recommendations to the trustees. A subscription for 20,000 Deferred shares in the Castle Community Bank, an amalgamation of three credit unions, was also made during the year as a mixed motive investment.

During 2019 there was considerable fluctuation in Markets but a strong recovery towards the end of the year has contributed to the unrealised gains in the Kirk investments at 31 December 2019 mentioned earlier.

Risk Management

The Stewardship campaign in 2018 resulted in only a small increase in congregational giving offset by decreased income as a consequence of members' deaths. While not ruling out another approach to the congregation, the decision was taken to focus on potential legacies and a campaign to encourage such giving was launched in autumn 2019. The substantial legacies received during the year preceded the campaign and so cannot be attributed to it but it is hoped that the campaign will bear fruit in the longer term.

Apart from the financial risk attributable to declining congregational giving, other risks facing the charity and for which specific safeguards are in place include such areas as Financial Management, Safeguarding, Data Protection, Health and Safety and Fire Safety.

Reserves Policy

It is the Trustees normal policy to hold a 'base' reserve in Unrestricted funds of between four and six months general operating expenditures and outlays. The reserves remain relatively high as substantial financial commitments on our buildings are anticipated, in particular a major refurbishment of the Kirk Hall in 2020. Also, additional funds are periodically designated by the Trustees specifically for Christian application in 'Outreach' opportunities to assist charitable bodies outwith the operating base of the Kirk.

Structure, Governance and Management

The congregation is a registered charity, number SC003430, is administered in accordance with the terms of the Deed of Constitution (Quoad Omnia) and is subject to the Acts and Regulations of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Members of the Kirk Session are the charity trustees. The Kirk Session members are the elders of the church and are chosen from those members of the church who are considered to have the appropriate skills and gifts. The minister, who is a member of the Kirk Session, is called by the congregation and inducted by Presbytery. The Kirk Session numbers 75 elders, 40 women and 35 men.

The Kirk Session is chaired by the minister and meets six times a year for ordinary business. An annual Kirk Session seminar is also held in March to discuss strategic matters or to learn about the work of the wider Church of Scotland. Certain responsibilities are delegated to the Finance Committee, Buildings Committee, Parish Committee, Special Services Committee, Social/Music Committee, Youth Committee and Communications and Technology Committee. Other ad hoc committees are created to attend to specific projects approved by the Kirk Session or other work that does not fall into the remit of one of the standing committees.

Responsibilities in Relation to the Financial Statements

The charity trustees are responsible for preparing a trustees' annual report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (UK Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in Scotland requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which show a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the applicable Charities SORP;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operational existence.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the charity and financial information on the congregation's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Disclosure of information to auditor

Each of the Trustees has confirmed that there is no information of which they are aware which is relevant to the audit, but of which the auditor is unaware. They have further confirmed that they have taken appropriate steps to identify such relevant information and to establish that the auditor is aware of such information.

Thomson Cooper were appointed as auditor to the Church and a resolution proposing that they be reappointed will be put at a general meeting.

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Trustees of Cramond Kirk, Edinburgh
(Church of Scotland)

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Cramond Kirk (the 'charity') for the year ended 31 December 2019 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charity's affairs as at 31 December 2019 and of its incoming resources and application of resources for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and regulation 8 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charity in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the ISAs (UK) require us to report you to where:

- the trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is not appropriate; or
- the trustees have not disclosed in the financial statements any identified material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt about the charity's ability to continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting for a period of at least twelve months from the date when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Other information

The trustees are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, other than the financial statements and our Report of the Independent Auditors thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- the information given in the accounts is inconsistent in any material respect with the financial statements; or
- proper accounting records have not been kept; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of trustees

As explained more fully in the Statement of Trustees Responsibilities, the trustees are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements which give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are responsible for assessing the charity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charity or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

We have been appointed as auditor under section 44(1)(c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and report in accordance with regulations made under that Act.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue a Report of the Independent Auditors that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements could arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our Report of the Independent Auditors.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with Section 44(1)(c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and regulation 10 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charity's trustees those matters we are required to state to them in an auditors' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Other matter

In the previous accounting period, the trustees considered that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) did not apply. Therefore, the prior period financial statements were not subject to audit.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies, which have been applied consistently in the current and preceding year in dealing with items which are considered material to the accounts, are set out below.

1.1 Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Standards applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS102) issued on 16 July 2014 and the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS102), the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

1.2 Going concern

The Trustees are satisfied that the charity has adequate unrestricted resources, of which high percentage is held in cash, to continue its objectives for the foreseeable future, and therefore has adopted the going concern basis in preparing these financial statements.

1.3 Funds

Funds are classified as, either, restricted funds, endowment funds or unrestricted funds, defined as follows.

Restricted funds are funds subject to specific requirements as to their use which may be declared by the donor or with their authority or created through legal processes, but still within the wider objects of the charity.

Endowment funds are funds which have been given on the condition that the original capital sum is not reduced, but the income there from is used for the purpose defined in accordance with the objects of the charity.

Unrestricted funds are expendable at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the objects of the charity. If parts of the unrestricted funds are earmarked at the discretion of the trustees for a particular purpose, they are designated as a separate fund. This designation has an administrative purpose only and does not legally restrict the trustees' discretion to apply the fund.

1.4 Incoming resources

Income is recognised when the charity has entitlement to the funds, any performance conditions attached to the item(s) of income have been met, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Cramond Kirk, Edinburgh (Church of Scotland)
Notes to the Financial Statements

1.5 Donated services and facilities

Donated professional services and donated facilities are recognised as income when the charity has control over the item, any conditions associated with the donated item have been met, the receipt of economic benefit from the use by the charity of the item is probable and that economic benefit can be measured reliably. In accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS102) the general volunteer time of congregation members is not recognised.

On receipt, donated professional services and donated facilities are recognised on the basis of the value of the gift to the charity which is the amount the charity would have been willing to pay to obtain services or facilities of equivalent economic benefit on the open market; a corresponding amount is then recognised as expenditure in the period of receipt.

1.6 Fixed assets

Cramond Kirk has the right to occupy and use for its charitable objects certain tangible fixed assets, including the Church, halls and manse, vested in the Church of Scotland General Trustees. No consideration is payable for the use of these assets. Expenditure incurred on the repair and maintenance of these assets is charged as resources expended in the Statement of Financial Activities in the period in which the liability arises.

All tangible fixed assets costing in excess of £1,000 having a value to the charity greater than one year, other than those acquired for specific purposes, are capitalised. Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis to write off the cost or initial value, less residual value, of tangible fixed assets over their estimated useful lives:

Fixtures, fittings, office and other equipment - 5 years

1.7 Investments

Fixed asset investments are stated at market value at the balance sheet date. Unrealised gains and losses represent the difference between the market value at the beginning and end of the financial year or, if purchased in the year, the difference between cost and market value at the end of the year. Realised gains and losses represent the difference between the proceeds on disposal and the market value at the start of the year or cost if purchased in the year.

1.8 Interest receivable

Interest on funds held on deposit is included when receivable and the amount can be measured reliably by the charity; this is normally upon notification of the interest paid or payable by the Bank.

1.9 Taxation

Cramond Kirk is recognised as a charity for the purposes of applicable taxation legislation and is therefore not subject to taxation on its charitable activities. The charity is not registered for VAT and resources expended therefore include irrecoverable input VAT.

15. Volunteers

In common with all congregations of the Church of Scotland the Cramond congregation benefits from the contributions made by volunteers who give their time and talents willingly for the benefit of the Church. The areas of congregational life which rely on the contributions of volunteers are many and varied but include not only the Kirk Session committees but also the children's Sunday Club and other children's activities, running the annual Christmas Fairs and Jumble Sales, organising the Christian Aid week activities, visiting elderly and housebound members of the congregation, maintaining the Kirkyard, catering for congregational and other functions and providing flowers and other floral decorations for the Kirk especially at Harvest and Advent. Much of the activity would be unable to continue were it not for the commitment shown.
